schools and your white children won't have to go to schools where black children attend, but it's going to cost you a quarter of a billion dollars. That bond issue is being seriously discussed. U.S. Senator Kerrey supports it. Mr. Warren Buffett supports it. But, again, it's based on resegregating. I'll have one more chance to speak on this item.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Chambers. Further discussion, Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Thank you, Mr. President, members. Tried to come up with some numbers here to apply in a practical manner of what we're looking at. Hundred percent of median income in the Omaha area would be $53,600. Research shows that one spends approximately 30 percent of their income on housing and, per month, that would be $1,340, and I believe that that is a sufficient amount to find housing in the private sector, and even less. I think one can rent a rather nice apartment for less than $1,300 per month. So I just wanted to provide some of those details and ask you once again to vote down this amendment and prepare for a substitute amendment. Thank you.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Smith. Senator Chambers, on the Smith amendment.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, my young Sena...my young friend, Senator Smith, made a comment earlier about when he was much younger. Well, when he was much younger he was in diapers. He hasn't been in the world long enough to be entitled to use that term just yet, especially compared to us. But I'd like to ask my young friend, Senator Smith, a question.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Senator Smith.

SENATOR SMITH: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Smith, do you believe that all apartment houses, all apartment complexes in Omaha are open equally to black people as they are to white people?

SENATOR SMITH: The unfortunate reality is there are probably
